Commandant's Report

I want to thank everyone that came to our last meeting. If you have not been to a meeting in a while, I encourage you to come out and find out the great things our Detachment is doing. I think we might be having too much fun at the meetings these days and you are missing out on the camaraderie.

Congrats to CJ for a great Battle of the Bands, thanks for all you did with this event.

We had a successful Pistol Shoot, once again. Thanks to James Schreiber, Dean Van Zanardi and Carol Corwin for all they did to pull this off.

Todd and Marie Hyson once again set up a sold-out Marine Corps Ball. If you were not able to get tickets you need to be faster next year. This is not something you can sit back and wait for.

Toys 4 Tots is in full swing.

We are a busy Detachment that makes me proud to be a part of. We continue to grow, which is amazing and serve the community in so many ways, food shares, veteran funerals, ticket sales and homeless veteran outreaches. To continue, though, we need your service after service, we are still looking for replacements for next year's staff for Junior Vice & Paymaster. These are the biggest shoes to fill but don't be intimidated, you will have support. If interested, please reach out to me.

Last, I encourage you to get out and vote. Doesn't matter by mail, early or in person. Every election in this day and age is important, not just the presidential ones. What is going on in our country starts with this one. School Boards and Judges are shaping what our society is doing, and this upcoming election has both of those on the line. So, please do what you signed up so long ago to do. Defend the Constitution and vote.

First Capitol in the Community

The First Capitol Detachment is pleased to express its gratitude to the members – and non-members – who made our Meet and Greet Picnic with the Dallastown Area High School USMC JROTC a success. Commandant Matthew Corwin (right) presented the Distinguished Citizen Bronze to Michael Craley (left); Distinguished Service Bronze to Associate Member Theresa Craley and Marine Wes Iler; and a Certificate of Appreciation to the Dallastown Lions Club, which hosted the event at their picnic grounds, accepted by Jodi Lynne Heffner.

First Capitol is pleased to support two of the Military Share programs that aid Veterans and their families who are food insecure. Donations are presented to Shiloh American Legion Commander Bill McCauley by Paymaster Brady and Rose Keller of Hearts4Veterans by Commandant Corwin. First Capitol members also get dirty hands and sore muscles during the distribution days. YOU CAN TOO! See the details on page 19.

I wrote this poem for a marine friend I lost track of.
I thought I would share it.

HE'S A DAMN GOOD MARINE.

He stands at attention
His uniform full dress
He reeks of perfection
The picture of excellence

His teeth are clenched tight
He's rough and he's mean
Some people call him
A hard nosed marine

The shine on his shoes
Could make you go blind
And the crease in his trousers
Is the sharpest you'll find

He remembers dead bodies
And service men who fell
And screams of the wounded
Were like screams from hell

He's all spit and polish
Crisp lean and clean
Most people call him
A squared away marine

When he salutes our flag
There's a tear in his eye
His pride for his country
Makes him break down and cry

He'll stare straight at you
And never back down
This man has been taught
To stand his ground

The tenderness is in there
Few people have seen
His buddies all call him
A damn good marine

His fist like a hammer
He can beat them all
If you stand up to him
He'll pin you ass to the wall

Lucy is one of our newest Associate Members. She agreed to share this.

From Our Chaplain

The Marine Corps League is proud to offer its members support and camaraderie in times of need - whether you are able to attend our meetings and events or not. It is important that you keep us on your contact list if you (or family members) happen to be hospitalized or otherwise unable to be as mobile as you would like to be.

Additionally, the League can offer your family support in time of need - especially when you answer the final Roll Call. The League prescribes certain ceremonies for members in good standing, and the First Capitol Detachment offers additional support - along with the York County Veterans Honor Guard.
